

Antinomian Lordless Salvation

Justification Sanctification and Assurance

Justification

Imputed righteousness
Declared righteous

Completely separate

Sanctification

Salvation by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone

Sanctification is good but not necessary for salvation
The individual may be spiritual, or carnal to the point of apostasy

Assurance is based upon a single act of professed faith in Christ Evidences of justification (works) are not relevant Decisional regeneration

God may be sovereign in justification but not in sanctification